PROCEEDINGS

JUDGE YODER: By the authority vested in me
by the Illinois Commerce Commission, I will now call
Docket 15-0522. It's a complaint filed by Warren
Corprew against Illinois Bell Telephone Company.
Complaint as to service in Danville, Illinois.

Mr. Corprew and Mr. Huttenhower have previously entered their addresses into the record.

Is there anyone else wishing to enter their appearance in this docket?

(No response.)

JUDGE YODER: Let the record reflect no response.

Parties are present by phone. Both Mr.
Corprew and Mr. Huttenhower.

We had previously set a schedule in this docket. And for whatever reasons, I believe
Mr. Corprew's -- we can talk about it on the record
-- I think his testimony, you intended that your December 29th filing be considered your direct -- sorry. Not filing. Your letter be considered your direct testimony.

Is that correct, Mr. Corprew?

MR. CORPREW: The only thing I recall -- and

1 I have to pull a dossier up to find out verbatim in
2 that time I need to do that, because I had made
3 reference. And the records that I have for AT&T, I
4 had sent information out. Oh, boy. And according to 5 my dossier, the information I sent quite some time
6 ago. And I was expecting a response back from AT&T,
7 but that response never came forth. That's what I
8 know. There was a stipulation that I had rendered.
9 And I believe that nine or -- seven or nine-page
10 dossier was my testimony. I will still adhere to 11 that.

12 That's what you are referring?

13 JUDGE YODER: That was the document you
14 filed on December 29, 2015. That was your response
15 to AT&T's answer. Is that correct?

16 MR. CORPREW: Yes.

17 JUDGE YODER: Did you send that to the Clerk
18 of the -- the Chief Clerk of the Commission?

19 MR. CORPREW: I sent it to -- a copy I
20 believe sent to -- pull that record up. I believe a 21 copy of that was sent to -- bear with me -- sent to 22 Attorney Huttenhower, as well as yourself.

23 JUDGE YODER: Well, I think we went over
24 that before. But the correct procedure for filing

1 documents is not to mail them only to myself and Mr.
2 Huttenhower.

3 MR. CORPREW: Well, I was instructed, in all
4 due respect, to the Honorable Ms. Rolando that the 5 only way I can get a response -- and I believe I have 6 a document that proves that even your secretary told
7 me you have to -- Mr. -- the Honorable Attorney Yoder
8 is away and the only way you can get a response is to 9 file to him. That was done on March 23rd.

10 However, I have -- here we are. March 23rd,
11 correspondence. Honorable Stephen Yoder. Docket
12 Number -- to the Honorable Stephen Yoder. That's the 13 same purpose of this correspondence to you is to 14 validate the authenticity of the submission of a
15 filing of complaint by Mr. Warren E. Corprew. Direct
16 testimony on February 26th, with appropriate
17 postmarked affidavit herewith. Which means I not
18 only signed it, that affidavit, but I sent, at my own
19 expense, a copy of that to validate the validity of 20 when that was sent, the postmark and what have you.

21 However, I have received the information
22 from AT&T, as required -- I have not received, as 23 required by law. I'd spoken to the Honorable Chief
24 Clerk, Elizabeth A. Rolando. And she has averred to

1 me that they have not received the appropriate
2 information themselves. That's complete by March 23,
3 2015, correspondence.

4 JUDGE YODER: All right. I think we're all
5 talking, but I am not sure we're talking so that
6 anybody is hearing.

7 What I informed you is that when you make a
8 filing, you file that with the Chief Clerk,
9 Ms. Rolando, and you send copies to myself and Mr.
10 Huttenhower. That has -- nothing that you have sent 11 has ended up on e-Docket. As indicated, it's been 12 filed with Ms. Rolando.

13 Your December 29, 2015, filing, which was 14 before anything was scheduled, you sent -- you
15 provided a Certificate of Service that you sent 16 copies to me and Mr. Huttenhower. Apparently, I
17 don't know if you sent anything to Ms. Rolando or 18 not. But she's the Chief Clerk. She's the one who 19 gets filings. She's the one who can put something on 20 e-Docket. I can't put something on e-Docket for you.

21 MR. CORPREW: I don't know what e-Docket and 22 all those terms you're using are.

23 JUDGE YODER: That's, in essence, the record
24 of this case. That's where things get filed. They

1 go into a file and then they get filed on e-Docket so
2 that everyone can see them. Filing something with me
3 does not constitute filing something with the Chief
4 Clerk. I mean, I don't know if you have ever had 5 anything with another county or anything like that.
6 But if you have an action in another case, you file
7 stuff with the Clerk.

8 MR. CORPREW: Let me say this, if I may. I
9 have a Certificate of Filing affixed by the 10 postmaster on -- and I sent a copy of that -- that
11 was sent February 26, 2016, to the Honorable Stephen
12 Yoder. The purpose of this correspondence --

13 JUDGE YODER: Mr. Corprew, I have gotten 14 various letters from you. I have tried to explain to 15 you, you don't send stuff to me. You send it to the 16 Clerk. If you send something to the Clerk, you send 17 it to me and Mr. Huttenhower. And you don't send 18 things just to me. That's improper. Mr. Huttenhower
19 needs to find out what you're saying also.

20 MR. CORPREW: I sent -- everything I sent to 21 Mr. Huttenhower -- you, rather -- I sent to Mr.
22 Huttenhower. He has copies of everything I sent.

23 JUDGE YODER: Okay. Well, if you have, you
24 didn't reflect that in the -- or it's unclear if you

1 did that, because that's not reflected in anything
2 that you have sent.

3 So do you have your filing or your response
4 to the answer of AT&T that was dated December 29,
5 2015?

6 MR. CORPREW: The only thing I recall -- I
7 have got to pull all these documents up. The only
8 thing I know is that the last filing, I sent that out
9 December 8th, there was something we got to go by 10 chronologically that everything that was sent. I
11 believe I sent that to Mr. Huttenhower. Oh, boy. I
12 got to pull all these files out and go back to find
13 out. I am doing that. July, September -- I didn't
14 never -- I never received the information from a
15 response from Mr. Huttenhower's office.

16 JUDGE YODER: When you say "information," do
17 you mean their direct testimony?

18 MR. CORPREW: They sent me something which I
19 responded to. And I have got to pull the records up.
20 I got December 29, 2015. I got that here. Dear
21 Counselor Huttenhower. And that is, I believe, is 22 numerically numbered, seven pages.

23 JUDGE YODER: Correct.

24 MR. CORPREW: I think it's seven. One, two,

1 three, four, five, six, seven. I sent that.
2 Specifically submitted 29th day of December, 2015. I
3 haven't heard anything since then.

4 JUDGE YODER: Well, that wasn't your direct 5 testimony. That was filed in response to their 6 answer.

7 Is that what you wish to be considered your
8 direct testimony?

9 MR. CORPREW: Yes.

10 JUDGE YODER: Okay.

11 MR. CORPREW: Let me review that to make
12 sure, because I have the conclusion. I consider --
13 in consideration of the foregoing affidavit -- yeah,
14 that must have been that. It had to be that.
15 Everything that's in that December 29th is my direct
16 testimony.

17 JUDGE YODER: Okay.

18 MR. CORPREW: Because I had it certified,
19 affidavit signed by a notary. And that was sent to 20 Mr. Huttenhower, as well as yourself. I think the 21 only thing -- according to my records, Mr. James
22 Huttenhower, the Honorable Stephen Yoder, and I had
23 all that affidavit behind it. And with a signature
24 of Mr. Benjamin M. Wochner. I believe that's the way

1     it's pronounced. That was done on the 29th.

2             JUDGE YODER: Okay. If you want that to be
3     your direct testimony, you need to send a copy of 4     that to the Chief Clerk at 527 East Capitol. That
5     Ms. Rolando you have spoken to. That's the person
6     who direct testimony goes to. And if there is --

7             MR. CORPREW: Well, she -- well, I have to 8     write that down. This copy of my direct testimony on 9     December 29th -- trying to hold the phone and talk at 10    the same time. I don't have the person to write it
11    for me. All right. That's nine pages. Yeah, all 12    numerically, with the numbers listed at the various 13    right-hand side, all those documents I have my 14    original. You have a copy, as well as Mr.
15    Huttenhower.

16            JUDGE YODER: Uh-huh.

17            MR. CORPREW: That should be -- this whole
18    file should be sent to Ms. -- let me write this down.

19            Who should this go to?

20            JUDGE YODER: It should be sent to Elizabeth
21    Rolando.

22            MR. CORPREW: Rolando. That's the Chief
23    Clerk.

24            JUDGE YODER: She is the Chief Clerk.

1     That's the same address as mine, 527 East Capitol in
2     Springfield.

3             MR. CORPREW:   And a copy of that should be
4     sent to her?

5             JUDGE YODER:   Right.

6             And you title it your direct testimony.

7             MR. CORPREW:   Wait a minute.   Testimony.
8             Go ahead.

9             JUDGE YODER:   And you need to provide her
10    with a Certificate of Service, similar to what you
11    had on there, I think, indicating that you have sent 12    copies of that to both myself and Mr. Huttenhower.

13            MR. CORPREW:   I don't have to send a copy to 14    you, but I have to have a Certificate of Service sent 15    to her?

16            JUDGE YODER:   Correct.

17            MR. CORPREW:   Certificate of Service.

18            Is there a certain form that I have to use?

19            JUDGE YODER:   If you use what you have on 20    the back there, that will be fine.   You certify that
21    you sent copies to both myself and Mr. Huttenhower.
22    And you can send them regular mail.   You don't have 23    to send them certified or anything.

24            MR. CORPREW:   I have a copy of the

1 Certificate of Service must be -- must go to --
2 JUDGE YODER: Correct.
3 MR. CORPREW: -- Ms. Rolando.
4 JUDGE YODER: Correct.
5 Otherwise, they won't accept it and they
6 will send it back to you.
7 MR. CORPREW: Copy of that.
8 JUDGE YODER: Right.
9 MR. CORPREW: Along with the testimony
10 itself?
11 JUDGE YODER: Right.
12 MR. CORPREW: Do you need anything else
13 yourself?
14 JUDGE YODER: Mr. Huttenhower, do you want
15 another copy of that?
16 MR. HUTTENHOWER: No.
17 JUDGE YODER: Yes, you can indicate -- I
18 don't need another copy. So you can just indicate
19 that you have mailed those. And Mr. Huttenhower and 20 I both acknowledge that we have received copies of 21 that filing.
22 MR. CORPREW: All right. But is there
23 anything in written form -- you don't need anything,
24 except Ms. Rolando? The Honorable --

1 JUDGE YODER: Correct.

2 MR. CORPREW: -- Ms. Rolando, she needs that
3 Certificate of Service.

4 JUDGE YODER: And your filing.

5 MR. CORPREW: And the filing.

6 JUDGE YODER: And the direct testimony,
7 correct.

8 MR. CORPREW: That's what I have down.

9 JUDGE YODER: So when we get that, let's say
10 you can have that on file by next -- if I assume 11 you're going to mail it in the next couple of days --

12 MR. CORPREW: I am going to prepare the 13 documents and what have you in the next couple of 14 days, because I have a doctor's appointment that's 15 urgent. And I must -- due to my longevity.

16 JUDGE YODER: Make sure she has that by
17 April 22nd. That's a week from Friday.

18 MR. CORPREW: All right. Twenty-second.

19 Now, she does not -- once I send it out, I
20 don't have to go through the Certificate of Service
21 by the postmaster once that's done before the 22nd?

22 JUDGE YODER: Right.

23 MR. CORPREW: I don't have to go back
24 through this.

1 JUDGE YODER: If there's anything that's
2 come up in the meantime, since the December 29th
3 letter, you can add that as an addendum or something.

4 MR. CORPREW: I understand.

5 JUDGE YODER: If you add anything, send that
6 to myself and Mr. Huttenhower. Okay?

7 MR. CORPREW: Right.

8 But as far as by the 22nd of April?

9 JUDGE YODER: Correct.

10 MR. CORPREW: And I need to have anything to 11 affirm that I sent this out according to the rules or 12 according to the service -- I will have it out, there
13 is no question about that.

14 JUDGE YODER: That's good.

15 MR. CORPREW: I don't necessarily have to go
16 back to the postmaster and get a Certificate of 17 Mailing?

18 JUDGE YODER: No, you just have to certify
19 that you have sent that. And make sure you send that 20 to her by the 22nd. It will get filed within a
21 couple days thereafter.

22 MR. CORPREW: All right.

23 JUDGE YODER: Since you want that to be
24 considered your direct testimony, and you will file

1     that.  Then the next question is we have to have
2     Illinois Bell's direct testimony.

3             So with that understanding, Mr. Huttenhower,
4     when would Illinois Bell be able to file their direct
5     testimony?

6             MR. HUTTENHOWER:  So we're assuming that
7     this will be up on e-Docket, you know, probably by 8     April 25th.

9             JUDGE YODER:  Correct.

10            MR. HUTTENHOWER:  How about the 13th of May?

11            JUDGE YODER:  Okay.  So Mr. Corprew,
12     Illinois Bell Telephone will file their direct
13     testimony by May 13, 2016.  And then, as we talked 14     before, you have the opportunity, if you wish, to 15     file rebuttal testimony.

16            MR. CORPREW:  But I should get a copy of 17     that --

18            JUDGE YODER:  Yes.  Mr. Huttenhower will
19     send his copy to the Clerk's office.  He will send a
20     copy to me and he will send a copy to you.  Since you
21     get yours by the mail, you will probably get yours on 22     the 16th or 17th of May.

23            All right.  So as we talked before, if you
24     wish to file rebuttal testimony, that would only be

1 in response to whatever Illinois Bell Telephone
2 files.

3 MR. CORPREW: Correct.

4 JUDGE YODER: You don't have to file
5 rebuttal, but you have the opportunity to since you
6 have the burden.

7 Would you be able to file that by June 3rd?
8 That would give you a couple of weeks. Or would you
9 need more time than that?

10 MR. CORPREW: Let's take one thing at a
11 time.

12 AT&T is going to have their information to 13 me by 5/13/2016. Is that correct?

14 JUDGE YODER: Well, they will file it on May 15 13th. Since you get yours by the mail, it's a little 16 hard to say when you will get it. But it will 17 probably be on the 16th or 17th.

18 MR. CORPREW: Let's say 5/17/20 (sic), I
19 should have that response from AT&T.

20 JUDGE YODER: Since we're leaving it up to 21 the post office, it's always a little up in the air
22 when they actually get it to you. But four days
23 after they mail it, you should have that, yes.

24 MR. CORPREW: I should have that by 5/17.

1     They mail it by the 13th, I should have it by 5/17.
2     And that will be their response.

3             JUDGE YODER:   That will be their direct
4     testimony, yes, laying out what their case is on 5     whatever they feel should happen in this case.

6             MR. CORPREW:   Direct testimony.   Response
7     testimony.   Response testimony by the 17th.

8             If I don't receive it, I may not respond to 9     you.

10            JUDGE YODER:   Well, if you haven't received
11    it by the 17th, I would call Mr. Huttenhower, just to 12    make sure that they mailed it.

13            MR. HUTTENHOWER: I can probably send it out
14    priority mail so we'll know.

15            JUDGE YODER:   Okay.

16            MR. HUTTENHOWER: It will get there -- we 17    will know when it gets there and it will get there
18    faster, I think.

19            JUDGE YODER:   Did you hear that, Mr.
20    Corprew?

21            MR. CORPREW:   But I am saying, I got down
22    here the 17th.   If I don't hear from AT&T by the 23    17th, I should call Mr. Huttenhower.

24            JUDGE YODER:   Right.

1           MR. CORPREW: That's what I am writing down.

2           JUDGE YODER: He indicates -- I assume --

3 where will it be sent from, Mr. Huttenhower?

4 Chicago?

5           MR. HUTTENHOWER: Yes.

6           JUDGE YODER: If it's sent priority mail on

7 the 13th. And you're in Danville, correct, Mr.

8 Corprew? That shouldn't be more than two days. So

9 you should probably get it on the 16th. If you don't

10 have it after the mail gets delivered on the 17th,

11 just call Mr. Huttenhower and just make sure there

12 wasn't a problem. Okay?

13          MR. CORPREW: That's what I am doing.

14 Without supposition. I am just saying I have down

15 here call Mr. Huttenhower on May 17, 20 (sic), if you

16 do not receive correspondence. That's what I am

17 having written down. And I note in my calendar if I

18 don't hear from him -- if I haven't received it, I

19 will call Mr. Huttenhower.

20          JUDGE YODER: Okay. So why don't we say

21 that you would file your rebuttal testimony -- if you

22 choose to file any -- by June 10th. Give you an

23 extra week.

24          MR. CORPREW: I am definitely going to

1     respond to what I receive. There is no question
2     about that.

3             JUDGE YODER: All right.

4             MR. CORPREW: Even though I have my physical
5     -- I am much older than I was before. Therefore,
6     your body changes. Every man's body changes. And I
7     am pushing 80. My body changes. And every human 8     under heaven, their body will change as well.

9             JUDGE YODER: Okay.

10            MR. CORPREW: Here's what I am doing. I am
11    going to definitely file. No question about it,
12    should I be alive. But on the 17th, I will call Mr.
13    Huttenhower, if that is not in my hands. And if in 14    my hands, you need a time when I will respond back.
15    Is that what you're saying?

16            JUDGE YODER: Right.

17            Would June 10th be enough time?

18            MR. CORPREW: Yes. I will put down 6/10/16.

19            JUDGE YODER: Right. And again --

20            MR. CORPREW: Respond -- wait a minute.
21    Respond to the Honorable Rolando.

22            JUDGE YODER: Right.

23            MR. CORPREW: Respond to Rolando and to the 24    Honorable Yoder.

1 JUDGE YODER: Right. When you file your
2 response on the 10th, you send that to the Chief
3 Clerk, Ms. Rolando.

4 MR. CORPREW: Right.

5 JUDGE YODER: And you send copies to me and
6 copies to Mr. Huttenhower.

7 MR. CORPREW: Copies to Yoder and
8 Huttenhower.

9 JUDGE YODER: Right.

10 And you'll need, again, to do that
11 Certificate of Service telling --

12 MR. CORPREW: Got that written down,
13 Certificate of Service.

14 JUDGE YODER: Telling Ms. Rolando that you
15 sent copies to both of us.

16 And I think we should, again, probably set a
17 status so we can make sure everything has been filed
18 before we set an evidentiary hearing.

19 MR. CORPREW: All right.

20 JUDGE YODER: And we will do that on the 21 phone. How about June 21st?

22 MR. HUTTENHOWER: I am going to be out that 23 week. I could probably call in. I am just like
24 hanging out in Michigan.

1 MR. CORPREW: 6/21/16.

2 Now, what we have just said -- even though
3 we said it verbatim -- is there any way your
4 secretary can validate that in written form so we
5 have it on record?

6 JUDGE YODER: Well, I don't have a
7 secretary. But I will do is have the Chief Clerk
8 send you a notice of the next hearing and include in 9 that the filing dates of when everything is to be 10 filed.

11 MR. CORPREW: That's what I am saying.

12 JUDGE YODER: Okay.

13 MR. CORPREW: I don't know if it's the 14 secretary.

15 JUDGE YODER: That will come from the Chief
16 Clerk's office. They'll send out the notice to you.

17 Mr. Huttenhower, if you can confirm whether 18 this phone number is still good or there's a
19 different one I can include in the notice to Mr.
20 Corprew and yourself. So if I can get that, I will 21 get that notice out in the next day or two.

22 MR. CORPREW: Now, on June 17 -- wait.
23 Response to -- on June 10.

24 JUDGE YODER: June 10, correct.

1           MR. CORPREW: Oh, boy. That's not good. I
2 don't even have the strength. The 10th -- on the 3 10th of June, I got 6/10, that is to get all those
4 three things to Mr. -- Honorable Ms. Rolando,
5 Honorable Judge and Mr. Huttenhower. Those are the 6 three people that should receive my direct -- my
7 response. Am I correct?

8           JUDGE YODER: Yes.

9           MR. CORPREW: Boy. I got to do something,
10 because I don't want to mess up. I don't want this
11 to be messed up. All right. Now, boy, just bear
12 with me. I wish I had a -- now, on the 10th -- could 13 you repeat that? Let's go from the 10th to the 17th.
14 The 10th of June.

15          JUDGE YODER: Let me start earlier.

16          You have your direct testimony that Mr.
17 Huttenhower and I have copies of. You're going to 18 file that with the Chief Clerk by April 22nd. And 19 that's your testimony from the 29th of December. Or 20 your filing from the 29th of December, the seven-page
21 document.

22          MR. CORPREW: Right.

23          JUDGE YODER: If you file anything
24 additional, you need to send that additional to me

1 and Mr. Huttenhower. Illinois Bell Telephone will
2 file their direct testimony by May 13, 2016. Mr.
3 Huttenhower told you he would file it -- send it
4 priority mail to you. So you should have it on 5 Monday the 16th. If you don't have it after the mail
6 gets delivered on the 17th --

7 MR. CORPREW: Call him.

8 JUDGE YODER: -- you'll call Mr. Huttenhower
9 just to make sure it got mailed.

10 MR. CORPREW: Right.

11 JUDGE YODER: You will file your -- any
12 rebuttal testimony by June 10, 2016. And that you
13 will send to the Clerk's office, Ms. Rolando, with a
14 Certificate of Service indicating that you will be 15 mailing copies of that to myself and Mr. Huttenhower.

16 Then we will have a status hearing on
17 June 21st to make sure everything got filed
18 correctly. At that point, we should be able to set
19 an evidentiary hearing date.

20 MR. CORPREW: All right. That is hearing.
21 Make sure everything was filed. Will be written by 22 your secretary?

23 JUDGE YODER: Yes, you will get notice of 24 that in the mail.

1           MR. CORPREW: I'll get notice on that?

2           JUDGE YODER: You will get notice of that

3   date, telephone call-in number. And in that notice,

4   it will also include all these filing dates we

5   discussed.

6           MR. CORPREW: We discussed the 10th and

7   17th.

8           JUDGE YODER: The 17th, that's the date

9   you're expecting to have the Illinois Bell's filing

10   by. That's not actually a date we're setting.

11           We're setting April 22nd for you to have

12   your mailing to the Clerk's office. May 13th for

13   Illinois Bell to file their direct. And you to file

14   your rebuttal testimony by June 10th. The 17th is 15   more of a reminder date for you.

16           MR. CORPREW: All right. The information I

17   am getting out now to you, to Mr. Huttenhower and 18   Ms. Rolando has to be done before a certain date.

19           JUDGE YODER: Before April 22nd.

20           MR. CORPREW: Right. April 22nd.

21           JUDGE YODER: Right.

22           MR. CORPREW: I am sending that out. A copy

23   of that document will go out quickly.

24           JUDGE YODER: Yeah.

1           MR. CORPREW: That's the one that has to do
2 with my direct testimony?

3           JUDGE YODER: That was your December 29th
4 letter.

5           MR. CORPREW: I'm going to jump on that
6 right now.

7           JUDGE YODER: Okay. All right. And you
8 will get a notice of all this, Mr. Corprew, with the 9 call-in number, after I confirm it with Mr.
10 Huttenhower.

11          MR. CORPREW: Yeah. If we can do that, that 12 will be helpful. Stay in synch with everything
13 that's required.

14          JUDGE YODER: Anything else today, Mr.
15 Corprew?

16          MR. CORPREW: Not that I know of. Just I
17 know what to do with that. And wait until the other 18 things.

19          JUDGE YODER: Anything from Illinois Bell,
20 Mr. Huttenhower?

21          MR. HUTTENHOWER: No, your Honor.

22          JUDGE YODER: All right. Then we will
23 continue this matter to June 21st -- we didn't set a
24 time -- 2016.

1           Would 9:00 work for you, Mr. Corprew?

2           MR. CORPREW:   For what?

3           JUDGE YODER:   For the status hearing on

4 June 21st.

5           MR. CORPREW:   That's going to be fine.  Yes,

6 that will be fine.

7           JUDGE YODER:   Does that work for Illinois

8 Bell, Mr. Huttenhower?

9           MR. HUTTENHOWER:  Yes.

10          JUDGE YODER:   Okay.  We will continue this

11 matter to June 21, 2016, at 9:00 a.m.  Thank you.

12          MR. CORPREW:   And you're going to have a

13 copy of that correspondence?

14          JUDGE YODER:   Yes, I will have notice of 15 that send to you, Mr. Corprew.

16          MR. CORPREW:   Thank you.

17          JUDGE YODER:   Thank you.

18                           (Matter continued to June 21, 2016,

19                           at 9:00 a.m.)
